SARAH AUBREY TO SPEAK AT THE INDIANA BIOMASS ENERGY WORKING GROUP MEETING

MONROVIA, Ind. – December 2, 2010 -- Sarah Aubrey, Prosperity Ag and Energy Resources, has been invited to speak at the Indiana Biomass Energy Working Group meeting on January 10, 2011, 1:00 P.M. to 4:30 P.M. (EST), at the Purdue Beck Agricultural Center, West Lafayette, Ind. The meeting will be showcasing investments and new discoveries of second generation biofuels in Indiana. Aubrey will be speaking on biomass grant and loan funding programs and tips for obtaining these funds. Aubrey will also be participating in the speaker panel at the end of the day.

Additional speakers at the event will be representatives from White Technology, LLC, POET Ethanol and Purdue University. If you would like to attend this meeting, contact Chad Martin, Renewable Energy Extension Specialist at martin95@purdue.edu.

The Indiana Biomass Energy Working Group is a consortium of stakeholders from the industry, state and federal government; trade organizations; universities; and citizenry. All stakeholders have joined ranks to create a climate in the state of Indiana that will foster the growth of a viable, renewable energy industry; protect our environment; and provide energy, security, and green jobs in our communities through educational programming and networking among stakeholders. More information can be found at www.extension.purdue.edu/renewable-energy/indiana-biomass-working-group.shtml.

Prosperity Ag and Energy Resources began in 2007 and is a full service, funding-opportunities development firm. Prosperity focuses on grant writing, guaranteed loans and general grant administration, working closely with state and federal contacts to strengthen communities, empower entrepreneurs and foster growth of farms and businesses.
