

2012 Spring/Summer Intern Position

(March – May; Spring Internship)

(June – August; Summer Internship)

Monrovia, Indiana

Job Description:

Full-time intern will gain experience in grant writing, marketing, book and article research, client interaction and general administration of a small office. Intern will work directly with owner and subcontractors on specific projects and will be engaged in current projects and on special projects designed for them. The majority of internship hours will be located at the office in Monrovia, Indiana.

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate, preferably a current freshman or sophomore
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Agricultural background preferred
- Minimum 2.8 GPA encouraged
- Suggested fields of study: Ag Communications, Ag Economics, Ag Engineering, and Political Science
- Proficiency in MS Office Applications, including Outlook, Powerpoint, Excel, Word, etc.
- Strong experience and proficiency in social media

Company Information:

Sarah Aubrey, Principal

sarah@prosperityagenergy.com

www.prosperityagenergy.com

6680 N Baltimore Rd

Monrovia, IN 46157

(317)996-2777

Prosperity Ag & Energy Resources is a full-service, funding opportunities development firm that works closely with state and federal agencies across the U.S. in the areas of grant writing, guaranteed loans and networking investors with projects. Sarah Aubrey, owner, is the author of two books and provides speaking and consulting services. Prosperity's office is located 19 miles south of the Indianapolis International Airport and about 30 miles north of Bloomington, Indiana.

Please send applications electronically to the above address.