FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SARAH AUBREY TO SPEAK AT NORTHEAST BIOMASS EXPO IN MARCH

MONROVIA, IND. – February 3, 2012 – Sarah Aubrey, Prosperity Ag and Energy Resources, has been invited to speak at the 4th Annual Northeast Biomass Expo on March 23, 2012, 9:45 A.M. EST, at the City Center, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Aubrey will be speaking on the third day of the expo with a breakout session on “Navigating the Federal Agency Funding Process – A Guide to Grants and Loan Guarantees.” Aubrey is a member of the Biomass Thermal Energy Council, a co-host of the event, and a member of the National Speakers Association.

The conference and expo will be held from March 21-23, 2012 and will join hundreds of biomass suppliers, vendors, project developers, customers and other leaders of the renewable thermal energy industry in expanding and advancing the biomass market in the Northeast. For more information on the conference, visit www.nebiomassheat.com.

Prosperity Ag & Energy Resources is a full- service funding opportunities firm which aids entrepreneurs, communities, universities, trade associations, and cooperatives in obtaining funds through the use of government or foundation programs in the areas of agriculture, energy, environment and food manufacturing. A Certified Grant Administrator, Ms. Aubrey assists clients in networking with state and federal agencies and trade groups to foster all areas of project development. Since 2007, she has written over 400 successful grants across 33 states; funding for these awards has yielded nearly $50 million. For more information, visit www.prosperityagenergy.com.
